Case Reference: INT/NPG/2023/191

Mr. Suvankar Saha ..... Complainant

vs

Maa Annapurna Diagnostic Centre, Madhyamgram..... Respondent/
Respondents

ORDER SHEET

Office Note	Order No.	Date	Order
	1.	13/10/2023	The complaint would relate to anomaly scan that could not detect the deformity of the child while she was in the mother's womb. Through Caesarean, female child was born. She was under treatment for the entire period when she was alive. She expired while she was one month four days. The complainant had to spend Rs. 10.5 lakhs approximately for such treatment. The complainant would contend, before us, had it been noticed at the right time the foetus could be aborted and the entire misery and sufferings could be avoided.

The Sonologist is online. He is however of the opinion, it might be due to abdominal injury of the abdomen that created the problem. The experts present at the panel, are not impressed.

In course of hearing Dr. Barman, the concerned Sonologist, would offer Rs. 10,00,000/- as compensation that the complainant has agreed to accept in full and final settlement. He would also assure, for the self-same cause of action he would not be approaching any other forum against the Diagnostic Centre and/or the Sonologist.

The parties would also agree, the money would be paid in twenty equal monthly instalments of Rs. 50,000/- each.

The money would be transferred to the bank account of the complainant.

The complainant would share the bank details in course of the day so that the transfer could be affected on November 1, 2022 and thereafter on the first day of each succeeding month.

In case of default of payment of any two monthly instalments the defaulted sum would become immediate payable and the complainant would be free to take appropriate legal step for realisation of the sum together with interest @ 7 per cent per annum until realisation.

The complaint is disposed of accordingly.
