ORDER SHEET

Office Note	Order No.	Date	Order
	2.	27/12/2023	The complaint came to us at the instance of the Girish Park Police Station for our opinion as to what further steps they should take in an unnatural death case registered with the concerned police station. We registered the case as 042/2022. We could not decide the issue as to hospital negligence as the post-mortem report was inconclusive. We disposed of the complaint on February 25, 2022 when we recorded that the complainant was absent who was given liberty to apply for the revival of the case assigning cogent reason. Subsequently, the concerned police station got the final post-mortem report that considered the forensic examination report issued by the

State Forensic Laboratory on March 3, 2021 as well as the Histopathology Report issued by the Department of Forensic, Medical College Kolkata where no foul play could be found.

The final post-mortem report would inter-alia observe:

“ i) Death due to the effects of disease conditions of vital organs as noted above- natural in manner.

ii) Death of foetus of Binita Harsh is consistent with death due to hypoxia.”

In view of the said final opinion dated November 28, 2022 issued by the Dr Saswata Das, Assistant Professor, Department of Forensic & State Medicine Medical College, Kolkata, we permit the concerned police station to close the case in accordance with law.

The order dated August 25, 2022 is clarified accordingly.

The complaint is disposed of accordingly.
