Mr. Nirmal Hajra Complainant

vs

New Greenland Nursing Home, Tamluk.....Respondent/ Respondents

ORDER SHEET

Office Note	Order No.	Date	Order
	1.	26/12/2024	Despite repeated calls, neither of the parties are present. Hence, we are constrained to dispose of the complaint in their absence. The complaint would have three grievances. The first grievance would relate to non receipt of the GST bill. In response, the CE has referred to Notification No 12 / 2017 Central tax (Rate) dated June 28, 2017 that would clearly exempt all health care charges pertaining to medical service, from GST. We have gone through the bill. It was a printed bill giving the figures written in hand in English.

We do not find any scope of interference.

The second issue would relate to charges for issuance of birth certificate. According to the complainant, although he had paid Rs. 300/- for the said purpose they demanded additional sum and ultimately he had to pay Rs. 800/- for the birth certificate as it was delayed.

Conspicuously the second issue has not been answered by the response. However, in absence of the parties we are not in a position to deal with the issue.

There is another issue with regard to mis-behaviour.

The CE has expressed their regret and assured that there would be no recurrence in future.

We dispose of complaint accordingly.
