ORDER SHEET

Office Note	Order No.	Date	Order
	1.	26/12/2024	The complaint would relate to exorbitant charges in case of quadruple test of the foetus which was ultimately found to be twin. The complainant would contend, the CE charged for two tests which was un-ethical. We have also heard the CE, the Diagnostics Centre. We understand, the patient was not properly counselled before the test and there was no specific mention in the bill that in case of twin, two charges would be charged. They must remove this anomaly upon notice to the

Coming back to the present complaint, we find, the patient was covered by CGHS. Hence, the CE is directed to call back the bill and prepare a fresh bill at the applicable CGHS rate and refund the balance amount, if any found to be in excess, to the complainant within a week from date.
