Ms. Kaberi Chatterjee..... Complainant

vs

Ramkrishna Mission Seva Pratishthan.....Respondent/ Respondents

ORDER SHEET

Office Note	Order No.	Date	Order
	1.	04/12/2025	The patient has undergone surgery at the CE in 2024. At the post-operative stage, the complainant was shown the infected gallbladder which was removed from the body of the patient and it was sent for histopathology. Complainant duly received the report as we find from the receipt given by her to the CE. The complainant would now contend, during further treatment at a different establishment the USG report revealed that the patient had gallbladder. Hence this complaint. Dr. M.L. Saha, our esteemed medical member, would clarify the issue, when a surgeon does the surgery of infected gallbladder some time it is not possible to extract the entire gallbladder and there might be some remains purposely kept to avoid any further injury.

We do not find any scope to interfere. If the complainant is still not satisfied she would be at liberty to approach the appropriate authority.

The complaint is disposed of accordingly.
