Case Reference: INT/SLG/2022/222

Mr. Sanat Das..... Complainant

vs

Nag Nursing Home.....Respondent/ Respondents

ORDER SHEET

Office Note	Order No.	Date	Order
	1.	13/01/2023	Facts would reveal, the complainant's wife got pregnant second time after giving birth to her first child. It was a case of second delivery. She was admitted at the CE with the complaint that the foetus was not moving. She gave birth to a still born baby. However, bleeding did not stop and as a life saving measure the concerned Gynaecologist took a written consent from the husband of the wife being the complainant herein for sub-total-hysterectomy. The complainant has now come up with the grievance that they were not properly counselled and in fact no informed consent was obtained. The records would however depict otherwise.

The complaint would relate to medical negligence.
We refrain from making any comment on the same.

The complainant would be free to approach appropriate authority for redressal of his grievance, if any.

The complaint is disposed of accordingly.
