	1.	29/05/2023	The patient approached the CE for cataract surgery. During surgery there was post surgical complication. There had been haemorrhage that raised intra ocular pressure. The ophthalmologist decided not to place the lens and referred him to retina specialist. The retina specialist examined the patient on the next day and advised medication and further procedure to be done after a fortnight. The patient did not turn up thereafter. The patient is present online. He is now under treatment of the Regional Institute of Ophthalmology (RIO). He would contend, complication happened due to the
